MAM's 38th Benefit Art Auction: February 27, 5 pm

MAM's Benefit Art Auctions Exhibition, featured in the Carnegie Gallery, opens January 13 and culminates with the 38th Benefit Art Auction on Saturday, February 27. This juried exhibition showcases all the works selected for the two distinctive art auctions, MAM's 38th Benefit Art Auction and Artini Auction: Wear Oh Ware. This year's exhibition promises a stunning array of contemporary art and art objects. Artini Auction: Wear Oh Ware features fabulous hand-crafted jewelry, one-of-a-kind clothing, ceramics, glassware, furniture, and more. The 30 pieces in the Artini Auction: Wear Oh Ware will go to the highest bidder in a high-energy event on Thursday, February 18.

Over 50 artworks for MAM's 38th Benefit Art Auction will remain on view until the Saturday, February 27 benefit auction. As always, this year's auction exhibition promises some of the best contemporary art from both established and emerging artists. Celebrated regional favorites like Lela Autio, Stephanie J. Frostad, and Josh DeWeese mingle with national artists like Magi Calhoun (TX) and Don Voisine (NY). First time, up-and-coming participants for this auction include Danny Crump, Caitlin Finley, and Dara Harvey, infusing both the exhibition and benefit auction with new energy and perspectives.
