STEVEN R. HOLLOWAY: FOLLOWING THE SENSE OF WATER

September 16 - November 15, 2008

Artist Gallery Talk: October 10, 4 pm

Missoula, MT / September 2, 2008 / Missoula Art Museum (MAM) / Steven R. Holloway: Following The Sense Of Water highlights Holloway's experience as a printmaker, educator and geographer. He will use the exhibition space to "illustrate" the process of mapping what he calls "Right MAP Making," and will concentrate on the Clark Fork River, highlighting the observation tools, journal notes, pinhole photographs, maps, and resulting print(s). We are pleased Holloway has returned to Missoula for this exhibition. He has been working at Kala Art Institute in Berkeley, CA, as an artist-in-residence, instructor of lithography and in the artist-in-the-schools program. The exhibition will be up during the North American Cartographic Information Society (NACIS) national conference in Missoula, October 9-11.
